

The Gloucester County Times

Online edition of Gloucester's daily newspaper

South Jersey Life

Advocare to open new practice in Mullica Hill (Business BRIEFS)

Posted by South Jersey News Online January 30, 2009 12:09PM

Advocare DelGiorno Pediatrics in Mullica Hill opens Feb. 1

Advocare, a physician-owned wholly integrated primary care health care practice, announced plans for the opening of its newest practice: Advocare DelGiorno Pediatrics of Mullica Hill. The new office will offer patients spacious examining rooms, separate sick and well waiting areas, and the most highly trained and well-respected pediatricians in the area.

Six doctors will provide comprehensive medical care at the new office for children from infancy through adolescence in the areas of general pediatrics, developmental pediatrics and urgent care medicine. Advocare is committed to providing high quality health care with a personal, caring touch that focuses on the health, safety and well-being of the communities it serves. The new office of Advocare DelGiorno Pediatrics of Mullica Hill will open on Feb. 1 and is located at 412 Ewan Road.

Doctors: John T. DelGiorno, M.D., Joseph J. DelGiorno, M.D., Harry Salvati, M.D., Melissa Labroli, M.D., Audrey Iacobucci, M.D. and Lynn Mann, D.O.