

COURIER-POST

South Jersey's Newspaper | courierpostonline.com

August 4, 2008

PEOPLE: Pediatricians open office in Woolwich

Advocare Woolwich Pediatrics has opened a pediatric medical facility at 300 Lexington Road, Building B, Suite 200, Woolwich.

The office focuses on acute, chronic, urgent and preventative care for children.

The structure itself is designed to allow children and their families to feel at ease, according to Dr. Ira H. LaVoe.

The practice is made up of five, board-certified pediatricians providing a full range of pediatric care.