

Garden State Pediatric & Adolescent Medicine to join Advocare

By HamiltonSpace Staff

Under its new name, Advocare Garden State Pediatric & Adolescent Medicine will continue to provide pediatric care to infants, children and adolescents through the college years. All board certified, the practice's physicians have expertise in the extensive range of pediatric care from growth and development, anticipatory guidance, and the full spectrum of illnesses including dealing with allergy, asthma and attention deficit disorder.

The practice in Hamilton Square has over 25 years of combined experience and operates under the philosophy that "Children are our future, and the preservation of their health is our duty." Physicians include Alon Baker, DO, FAAP, FACOP, Laura Brandspiegel, MD, FAAP and Sonya Boor, MD, FAAP.

The practice of Advocare Garden State Pediatric & Adolescent Medicine will open Sept. 1, 2009, and will be located in the Lexington Square Commons at 2133 State Highway 33, Hamilton Square. They can be reached by phone (609) 581-5100 or at <http://www.advocaredoctors.com>.