

Advocare Expands in Pennsylvania and New Jersey

Marlton, NJ — November 1, 2021 — Advocare, a physician-owned multi-specialty medical group with over 600 providers, continues to grow its footprint in Pennsylvania and New Jersey by welcoming 2 new Care Center practices.

Advocare Neurologic and Headache Associates is led by Louis Pearlstein, DO, and Anu Khatri, DO. Located in Bensalem, PA, the Care Center has been serving patients in Lower Bucks County and Northeast Philadelphia since 1982. They provide the highest quality consultation services and state-of-the-art diagnostic testing in a convenient outpatient setting.

The Care Center treats a wide range of conditions, including Alzheimer's Disease, Concussions, Multiple Sclerosis, Parkinson's Disease, and many others. Their services include Autonomic Nervous System Testing, EEG, Nerve Conduction Studies, Home Sleep Studies, and more.

Kira Feldman, MD, leads Advocare Cedar Bridge Pediatrics, located in Barnegat, NJ. Dr. Feldman has over 28 years of pediatric experience. She graduated from Minsk State Medical School in Belarus in 1992. The Care Center diagnoses and treats all forms of pediatric conditions, and they conduct both in-person and telehealth appointments.

"We are very excited to welcome Advocare Neurologic and Headache Associates and Advocare Cedar Bridge Pediatrics into the Advocare organization," said Howard Orel, MD, Advocare's President and Chief Executive Officer and a practicing physician. "They increase patient access to the highest quality primary and specialty care in both Pennsylvania and New Jersey."
