Your Health. Our Purpose.

Marlton, NJ — October 1, 2020 — Advocare, a physician-owned multi-specialty medical group with nearly 600 providers, continues to expand its presence by welcoming a new Care Center practice: Advocare Kashkin Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Center.

Based in Fair Lawn, NJ, Advocare Kashkin Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Center is owned by Jay Kashkin, MD. Dr. Kashkin is a former Assistant Clinical Professor of Pediatrics in the Division of Allergy and Clinical Immunology at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in The Bronx, NY. He was involved in early research in HIV looking at fetal target organs of the virus.

In 1989, Dr. Kashkin opened a private allergy and immunology practice. He treats kids and adults, from 4 weeks of age to 95 years, with allergic disorders, including food allergies, eczema, asthma and asthma in the competitive athlete. Additionally, he cares for patients with immune deficiencies and recurrent infections.

Dr. Kashkin was a Board Member of the American Lung Association in NJ from 1989-1999, volunteering at "Camp Super Kids" for children with asthma. Currently, he is a national lecturer and researcher in the field of hereditary angioedema (HAE), a rare genetic disorder causing unpredictable swelling anywhere in the body. Dr. Kashkin has co-authored numerous articles on the topic of HAE and presented at national meetings.

"We are excited to welcome Advocare Kashkin Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Center into our growing organization," said Howard Orel, MD, Advocare's President and Chief Executive Officer and a practicing physician. "We continue to expand our group geographically and by offering a very broad range of specialties to benefit our patients."

Mahbod Mohazzebi, MD, Advocare's Secretary, Chairperson of its Market Development Committee and a practicing physician, noted, "Expanding our allergy, asthma and immunology Care Center practice base will continue to strengthen the Advocare brand by delivering patient-centered care in collaboration with our comprehensive network of providers. Our goal is that an Advocare patient considers all of the services we have to offer, so we strive to grow our provider reach both clinically and geographically."
